GOVERNMENT CLASSIFIED ADS.

Alberta farmers are still much excited over the supposed minimum price of $1.75 that they are to receive as the initial payment on this year's wheat crop. Resolutions are still poured into the central offices of the U. S. A. from various local demands that the present U. S. minimum price of $2.25 should be paid. Invariably it is stated in the resolution that farmers have no confidence in the statement that they will receive the balance due to them when the wheat is actually sold. What they are frightened of is that this may be all swallowed up in expenses and that there will be nothing more coming to them.

"The High Commissioner of the U. S. A. stated that he did not know if there was any foundation for such a conclusion. One thing was certain however and that was that the export of the government handling the crop had been entirely sold of course there might always be an element of doubt as to its actual success from the farmer's point of view. Mr. Higginbotham stated that John Stewart, the chairman of the Canadian Wheat Board had suggested that representations might be made by the U. S. A. but that as H. W. Wood the president was a member of the board it was thought that the Alberta farmers' interests would be well looked after in this respect.

In the meantime Secretary Higginbotham has addressed the following communication to the chairman of the board:

"In the first place we wish to state that nothing has happened for a long time has aroused such a storm of protest from our members throughout Alberta as the suggestion, given in newspaper reports emanating from Ottawa that the farmers be paid an initial or minimum of $1.75 for their wheat this fall. Whilst in the statement given out by a government the word 'minimum' price is not used there is a very wide spread belief that this is what is really intended by the suggestion of fixing the initial price at $1.75. There has been a combination of circumstances which have led the farmers very naturally to view with exceeding distrust and opposition any suggestion to force down the price of wheat at the present time below its actual value on the world's market.

"Even if the farmer gets last year's price or the present United States minimum for his wheat crop this year there will be very poor crop conditions extending over the major portion of the three western provinces who will reap a profit from their farming operations this year. While in very many districts owing to 'conditions' over which the farmers have absolutely no control, the returns from the farms have not for the past two or three years and in some cases four years, equalled the cost of production.

Made the crop in most districts an absolute failure in many districts the price of wheat rose rapidly when unrestricted trade was allowed, the hopes of farmers who had seen their returns owing to the weather vanishing below the cost of production, were roused in expectation of getting a price which in view of the small crop, would at least compensate them in some degree for their expenditures. The fact that, in spite of the demands from farmers' organizations since the beginning of the year asking the government to eliminate speculation in the marketing of this year's crop, no effort was made in this direction until the price of wheat began to advance under unrestricted trading, combined with the report of the cost of living commissioner of the house of commons, mentioning the price of wheat as the main factor in the present high cost of living, has led the farmers to believe that there was an effort on the part of the government to make the wheat price the 'goat' of its whole situation.

"Farmers here are convinced that the suggestion of $1.75 mentioned in seemingly inspired newspaper reports was an attempt to force the price of the present crop down much below its actual value on the world's market. Why there should be any such attempt on the part of the government or any organization with the national interest at heart, this organization cannot understand. Farmers have already sacrificed more than any other producers by the fixing of the price of wheat at the level arbitrarily maintained during the war. Considering the larger portion of Canada's crop is exported, it seems to this organization that it is in the interest of the farmers especially in view of the exceedingly short crop this year, that our wheat be sold for the best price it will bring on the world's market.

"In conclusion this organization, speaking on behalf of the farmers of this province wishes to state very emphatically that in our view any attempt to fix the price of wheat on a basis less than the present price fixed by the United States government cannot be justified from any point of view."

Later Report
Ottawa, Ont. Aug. 18—Sir George Foster acting prime minister announced at 3 o'clock this afternoon that the wheat board of control has recommended a final payment of $1.15 per bushel to farmers for wheat on the basis of No. 1 Northern, Fort William. The government has approved the price.

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETIES

The holding of fair or agricultural exhibitions throughout the town and country of Canada, are we assume, for the purpose of creating competitive interest in the production of agricultural products and encouraging a better class of goods among the farming community. The government annually donates large sums to individual expositions, to assist them in making the fair a success.

Now a fair is only for the good of one class of people, as far as entering into competition and that is for the farming community. It should be for the interest to take hold of the fair arrangements and see that they are carried through in nearly every case in the small towns, most of the towns, especially the officers are the towns people, who usually take charge of the fair, go to work to finance it, and generally supervise all proceedings.

In our opinion, the U. F. A. as a society, farmers' organization, should be the mainstay in promoting and carrying out the arrangements of local fairs. We surmise that the U. F. A. is not adverse to entering and taking away all the prizes they could secure. We believe that if the U. F. A. would take an active interest in this annual event, Wainwright would have its exhibition this fall. If the farmers are backing up the directors of an agricultural society, unanimously, then there is no question of the success of the undertaking.

RURAL LINES

The provincial government have authorized work on the construction of rural telephone lines in this district. The Board of Trade and our member have been endeavoring for the past four years to get a rural telephone line constructed, and the news that their effort is finally successful will be received with pleasure.

The excessive high prices of material have not been due to any extent to delaying work and also the shortage of labor during the war period.

A little more action would be appreciated by the people, of the cost of living commensurate. While they are getting squared round, prices are skyrocketing higher than ever.

Our town council means to have a meeting or they will forget how to run it. It has been so long since they all gathered together.

Which would have been the most educational to the district and most beneficial—the Chautauque or a good annual exhibition. Evidently the exhibition is put to the background.

The banner day of the year for the animals will soon be here—September 1st. Who wants at least ten per cent of the birds shot at.

Major and district has reason to be proud of their effort in making their fair so successful this year.

Efforts are being made to get the Petrol of Wales to stop off while on route to Edmonton, to look at the Park. We believe he would certainly feel amply repaid for a visit to the park, as it is not often that one has the opportunity of seeing so large a herd of buffalo at one time—to say nothing of the opportunity to view the finest farming district in Alberta.

A campaign is now started in the United States to introduce and standardize the metric system and discard the present cumbersome methods. We hope those in charge of this will be successful in their aim.

Wainwright will lose this week a highly esteemed and popular citizen, Mr. W. B. Brodie, former principal of the school. He will leave for Head Dece.

THE FULL MOON

Oh, moon, we envy you each night,
Since prohibition came.
You smile down at our arid plight,
And glory in your shame.

You are beyond the law, that's true,
And you must have a gun;
For, while we're on the wagon, you
Can stay out and get fun.

Just think of the example, see,
You're setting folks down here,
You get full right along, while we Can't get a glass of beer.

Our parliament can't make you feel
With "a line" dry law built
We're splitting cotton now, while you
Can stay out and get fun.

BOUGHT CATTLE FROM SOUTH ALBERTA

Bob Harris returned Saturday from a trip to Calgary and southern points where he has been buying some cattle. He secured sixty eight head of good stock, which arrived here last week.

Bob reports that all the stories of cattle starving in the Southern part of Alberta are not according to facts, as he found they were in splendid condition and were as well fed as in our own district.

As for the crops in that part of Alberta, he says that the heavy rains that they received some time ago has given new life to the crop and they will still harvest some grain.

Bob has recently purchased quite a large tract of land near Lloydminster, and will winter the majority of his cattle there, leaving the calves and yearlings on his farm near Gilt Edge. He will have plenty of feed for the winter.

Bob expresses genuine regret at having to leave the district adjacent to Wainwright. He was one of the real old timers and "boobies" in it along the railroad track before passenger trains were running. When in a reminiscent mood he can tell some of the "good old days" by the hour. He tells of the first night spent in the Wainwright hotel when he slept in a room where the windows were still without glass, being covered up with old pieces of tarpaper, which served to keep out the cold. Bob is particularly fond of his descriptions of the old days when the little brown jug was much sought after and how it was so frequently replenished by travellers from Vermilion and Hazyton.

WALL STREET JOURNAL
APPROVAL OF METRIC IDEA
San Francisco, Aug. 18.—The voice of the Wall Street Journal has editorially urged the adoption of metric weights and measures by the United States. The Journal points out that this simple and logical system was favored by Washington, Jefferson, Madison and other statesmen, and that throughout the history of this nation public men and economists have urged the advantages of this simple decimal system of weights and measures. The Journal draws attention to the fact that one of the earliest orders of the war called for the adoption of metric units by Britannia and when the United States entered the conflict America followed suit.

"Perhaps the Anglo-Saxon aversion of change would be quickly overcome," declares the Journal, "if it were generally known that our measurement by weight, ounces and quarts had its origin in Germany."

NEURALGIC PAINS

Give Way to Soothing Hamlin's Wizard Oil

Hamlin's Wizard Oil is a safe and effective treatment for headache and neuralgia. Rubbed in where the pain is, it acts as a tonic to the tortured nerves and almost invariably brings quick relief.

Its healing, antiseptic qualities can always be relied upon to prevent infection, or other serious results, from sprains, bruises, cuts, burns, bites and stings. Just as good, too, for sore feet, stiff neck, frost bites, cold sores and catarrhs.

Get it from druggists for 30 cents. If not satisfied return the bottle and get your money back. Ever constipated or have sick headache? A "tut" try Wizard Liver Whips, pleasant little pink pills, 30 cents. Guaranteed.
